

Marcus Pearl to step down as Primacy CEO following election as Mayor

30 December 2021

Allianz Australia congratulates Marcus Pearl on his recent election as the Mayor of the City of Port Phillip (Victoria) and advised that after 6 years as CEO of Primacy he will step down at the end of 2021.

Glen Drinnan, Allianz Australia's General Manager of Specialty, said "Marcus' leadership has seen Primacy continue to grow in Australia, implement a simplified business model and establish a next generation underwriting platform for brokers adding value to Primacy's customers and shareholder.

"We wish Marcus every success in the future and as Mayor of the City of Port Phillip. We thank Marcus for his commitment and service to Primacy and Allianz."

About Primacy

Primacy is Australia's leading provider of Crop Insurance. A subsidiary of Allianz Australia, Primacy has over 25 years' experience in developing innovative solutions to help Australia's primary producers protect their crops and investments.

Media enquiries

Allianz Media Team // media@allianz.com.au